1 Individual and representative plaintiff Sennett Devermont ("Plaintiff") brings this action for
2 himself and for all other similarly situated California residents. The following allegations are based on
3 Plaintiff's personal knowledge, on investigation by his counsel, and on information and belief:

4 INTRODUCTION

5 1. Uber Technologies, Inc. ("Uber") is unlawfully attempting to advertise false or misleading
6 information concerning their prices and credits it provides for referring new customers. Plaintiff has
7 brought this action to stop this unlawful practice.

8 2. Acting on its own behalf, Uber misleads its users by falsely advertising a cheaper product
9 than their competitor. This claim is false and misleading as a normal cab company may charge less for
10 the same route, as found by Plaintiff. By attempting to advertise this information, Uber is systematically
11 violating California's unfair competition law and California's prohibitions on false advertising. In 12 addition, Uber is making misleading representations regarding the credits it offers for referrals.
13

14 THE PARTIES

15 The Plaintiff

16 3. Individual and representative plaintiff Sennett Devermont is, and at all times relevant to 17 this action, was an individual residing in Los Angeles County, California.
18

19 The Defendant (including Doe Defendants)

20 4. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and therefore alleges that defendant Uber Technologies,
21 Inc. ("Uber") is, and at all relevant times was, a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the 22 state of California. Uber is, and at all relevant times was, authorized to transact the business of 23 transportation in the state of California and transacted transportation business in Los Angeles County,
24 California.
25
26

1 15. The proposed class period would begin July 14, 2011, which is four years before the filing
2 of the original complaint in this action.

3 16. The identities of the members of the proposed class are ascertainable from Uber's
4 corporate records.

5 17. Plaintiff reserves his right to modify the definition of the proposed class and sub-classes
6 based on information that he or his counsel learns during discovery.

7 Common Questions Predominate

8 18. Common questions predominate over individual questions. These questions include the 9 following:

- 10 1. Did Uber falsely advertise that its rates were lower than cabs?
11
12 2. Did Uber mislead its credit system for referring new business to its 13 consumers?
14 3. Is Plaintiff entitled to reasonable attorney fees?

15 Plaintiff's Claims are Typical

16 19. Plaintiff's claims are typical of the claims of absent class members.

17 Plaintiff is an Adequate Representatives

18 20. Plaintiff will adequately represent the class. He has no interests that are in conflict with 19 those of the class. Furthermore, they have retained as counsel attorneys who have experience
20 prosecuting consumer class actions.

21 Superiority of Class Treatment

22 21. The class mechanism is superior to other procedures for resolving these claims. Upon
23 information and belief, the class is too large for joinder to be practicable. The members of the class are 24 people who have used Uber, and they usually lack the means to prosecute these claims individually.
25
26

1 Furthermore, given the state of California's courts, resolving these claims on a class-wide basis rather
2 than user-by-user would help preserve increasingly scarce judicial resources..

3 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

4 Violations of the Unfair Competition Law

5 Cal. Business & Professions Code §§17200 *et. seq.

6 (By all plaintiffs against Uber Technologies, Inc. and Doe Defendants 1 through 100)

7 22. Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by reference the allegations contained in paragraphs 1
8 through 34 above.

9 23. The Unfair Competition Law prohibits acts of competition that are "unfair," "unlawful,"
10 or "fraudulent." This includes any act prohibited by Business & Professions Code §§ 17500 et. seq.

11 24. Business & Professions Code §17500 provides that it is unlawful for any person, firm,
12 corporation, or association, or any employee thereof to intentionally directly or indirectly perform
13 services, professional or otherwise, or to induce the public to enter into any obligation relating thereto, to
14 make or disseminate in any manner any statement which is untrue or misleading, or which by the 15 exercise of reasonable care should be known to be untrue or misleading.

16 25. Uber's conduct constituted unfair business practices, as defined by the above-referenced 17 statutes.

18 26. Uber's conduct was "unlawful." It violated the statutes prohibiting false advertising
19 including Business & Professions Code Section 17500.

20 27. Uber's conduct was "unfair." Uber's advertising campaign includes statements that its 21 prices are 30% lower than a cabs for certain routes. This is false and misleading. In addition, Uber
22 misleads its consumers regarding the credits its offers for referring business. The public policy that is a
23 predicate to Plaintiff's UCL claim is tethered to the state's false advertising statute, state law governing
26

1 false advertisement, and the common law. Finally, Uber's actions here have been immoral, unethical,
2 oppressive, unscrupulous, and substantially injurious to consumers.

3 28. The Uber's conduct was "fraudulent." Consumers, including Plaintiff, were likely to be
4 deceived by Uber's advertisement of cheaper service and non-expiring credits.

5 29. Plaintiff lost money or property because of Uber's unfair, unlawful, and fraudulent
6 conduct. Plaintiff paid Uber more than was expected or advertised comparatively to a normal cab
7 company. He also lost credits because Uber failed to properly advise him of expiration dates.

8 30. Plaintiff is informed, believes, and therefore alleges that the unlawful practices alleged
9 above are continuing in nature and are widespread practices engaged in by Uber.

10 31. On behalf of the general public, Plaintiff requests that this court order Uber to disgorge
11 the profits they have wrongfully obtained through the use of these unfair, unlawful, and deceptive
12 practices.

13 32. Additionally, Plaintiff seeks an injunction requiring Uber to stop the misleading
14 advertisements and to properly disclose all expiration dates, if any, regarding credits for referring 15 business.
16

17 WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs pray that the Court enter judgment for them and against Uber and that 18 the judgment include the following relief:

- 19 1. that the Court certify this case for class treatment, with Sennett Devermont as class
20 representative, and Michael L. Cohen and Heather M. McKeon as counsel for the class;
21 2. for general, special, and consequential damages according to proof;
22 3. for attorney fees;
23 4. for taxable costs;
24 5. for a preliminary and permanent injunction prohibiting the Uber from engaging in the 25 conduct described herein;
